To the Class of 1964 of La Salle College:

As President, I extend to you a warm welcome to the campus of La Salle College. You have selected La Salle to be your Alma Mater, and I am pleased that you made that choice. As you become better acquainted with your college, you too, I am sure, will be pleased with what La Salle has to offer you.

La Salle provides the means by which you may gain a sound sense of moral and spiritual values, necessary technical skills, and a broad liberal education. It is your part to receive; you are not a mere guest, however, nor a passive spectator. You are now a member of the La Salle family and, as such, are expected to participate actively in campus life.

Among those who pursue wisdom, there are neither classes nor castes. At La Salle you will be treated as an individual. You are as important as your neighbor. You are the major reason why the college exists.

May your four years here be profitable and pleasant, and may God bless you and all your endeavors.

Cordially,

Brother Daniel Bernian, F.S.C.

Brother Daniel Bernian, F.S.C., Ph.D., LL.D.
President

ST. JOHN BAPTIST DE LA SALLE
(1651-1719)

Founder of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools
Patron of All Teachers

History

THE STORY of the Christian Brothers, the teaching order at La Salle, goes back to France during 1680, when St. John Baptist de La Salle, an aristocrat and canon of the Church, recognized the need of a Christian education for the many, rather than for the wealthy and favored few, as had been the custom.

After distributing his entire fortune, St. La Salle and the teaching Brothers who became his followers consecrated themselves to the single goal of educating poor young men and boys. They proceeded to establish schools for this purpose, including schools for the handicapped, correctional institutions, vocational and technical schools . . . even a normal school, the first of its kind in France. They devoted their lives to teaching without thought of recompense, and brought in many innovations. Among those pioneering steps in education were teaching in the vernacular instead of in Latin as was the prevailing custom, and instructing “simultaneously” rather than teaching one pupil in a class at a time. Above everything else, St. La Salle and his instructors based their teaching program on the fundamental precepts of Christianity to give their students spiritual and moral value.

The Brothers carried their pattern of blending philosophical with scientific teaching all over the world. They arrived in the United States in 1845 and founded La Salle College at Philadelphia in 1863. The growth of the College was rapid, increasingly so with the influx of World War II veterans. In 1946, in response to student needs as well as requests from Industrial and Business firms, an Evening Division of the College was inaugurated.

La Salle College's administrative and teaching staffs are made up of 40 Christian Brothers and 167 laymen, serving 4000 men in the day and evening schools. In addition, approximately 100 Christian Brothers from La Salle's Elkins Park Scholasticate attend the College.

Academic Offices

The Vice-President for Academic Affairs is the chief officer of this division of the College and is in charge of the overall instructional program.

The Dean of a specific school of the College is the chief executive officer of the School. Each student should consult the Dean of his school on the following matters:

- 1 anything pertaining to scholastic pursuits;
- 2 approval of rosters and schedules;
- 3 permission to make changes in courses of study;
- 4 permission to schedule extra hours;
- 5 permission to discontinue a course;
- 6 a delayed, postponed, or deferred examination;
- 7 questions concerning scholastic standing;
- 8 class attendance and absences;
- 9 the Deans' list;
- 10 withdrawal from College.

The Registrar's Office attends to the following matters:

- 1 filing of student records and course marks;
- 2 issuance of transcripts;
- 3 preparation of quintile distribution;
- 4 issuance of student reports;
- 5 interruption of veteran training.

IMPORTANT: The Registrar's Office must be given a week's notice for the issuance of a transcript. There is a fee of one dollar for every copy of a transcript requested after the first.

LA SALLE COLLEGE

Students are personally responsible for requesting draft deferment. Upon request, the Registrar's Office will send Selective Service Certificate #109 to the respective service board at the end of the school year.

The Office of Registration and Rostering attends to the following:

- 1 The supervision of semester registration.
- 2 The scheduling of classes.
- 3 The scheduling of examinations.

The Library

The building, erected in 1952, is located on the Olney Avenue side of the campus. Its collection of approximately 56,000 books and 300 magazine subscriptions is centered around the College curriculum and provides most of the books a student is ordinarily called upon to consult.

The office of the Librarian is located on the first floor of the College Library.

College Advisory System

Freshman Advisers

Early in the Freshman year faculty members are assigned to assist the new student adjust himself to the change brought about at the start of his college career. A student will consult with his adviser during the freshman and sophomore year, or until he has definitely chosen a major field. When a student has chosen a major, he will inform his freshman adviser and thenceforth consult his course adviser.

Course Advisers

Academic guidance is necessary to enable students to derive the utmost benefit from their programs of study. Members of the faculty (usually chairmen of departments) are appointed to give assistance in the selection of programs of study and of courses within such programs. Course Advisers work under the direct supervision of the Dean's office.

Pre-registration

Pre-registration takes place during the Spring Semester, and it is at this time that students confer with their advisers and decide on their academic program for the following year. Notices giving complete information about pre-registration are prominently posted to remind students of their obligations in this matter.

Every student must have his roster approved and signed by his proper adviser before turning in his selection of courses to the Dean's Office.

Registration Procedure

A student has registered when he has completed the required form cards and has complied with the directions given below. Registration cards must be completed in ink or with a ball-point pen.

After completion, form cards must be approved by the Director of Rostering. These and the student's Course Cards are then taken to a member of the Business Office staff who will stamp the Course Cards and return them along with a roster card to the student. These stamped Course Cards are to be used by the student to gain admission to the courses indicated on the cards.

Academic Standing

A scholarship index system is used at La Salle to determine a student's average grade. In the determination of the index, each letter grade is ascribed a numerical value, called the grade point. "A" is valued at 4 grade points; "B" is valued at 3 grade points; "C" is valued at 2 grade points; "D" is valued at 1 grade point; "F" is valued at zero grade point.

A grade point score is calculated for each course by multiplying the numerical equivalent of the letter grade by the number of semester hours. The cumulative index, or the average grade of all courses, is found by dividing the sum of the grade point scores for all courses by the total number of semester hours rostered.

Deans' Honor List

The Deans' Honor List is published at the termination of each semester.

Those students who have a cumulative average of 3.4 are placed on the Deans' List. To be eligible for this list, a student must have complied with all of the regulations of the College. Freshmen are not eligible for inclusion on this list.

Graduation and Honors

The bachelor's degree with honors is conferred on a student who has completed his course at the College with an average of all marks not lower than 3.4 and who is not under sanction for disciplinary reasons.

LA SALLE COLLEGE

In the computation of honors, the candidate for the bachelor's degree who has earned an average of 3.8 in all courses will be graduated with the designation maxima cum laude.

A candidate who has earned an average of 3.6 during the same period of time, will be graduated with the distinction magna cum laude.

A candidate who has earned an average of 3.4 will graduate with the distinction cum laude.

Honors are computed on the basis of the work done for eight semesters.

All students who are to receive degrees on Commencement Day are required to attend the Commencement Exercises, unless specifically excused by the Vice-President for Student Affairs.

Requirements for a Degree

a The candidate for a degree must have completed course work equivalent to a minimum of 132 semester hours.

b He must have obtained a "C" average or cumulative index of 2.00 in his prescribed program of studies.

c He must have fulfilled all course requirements prescribed for him by the Dean in his chosen area of concentration.

d Eight semesters of collegiate study are required for a degree. The final two must be spent in residence at La Salle, that is, as a student following a full program.

Academic Censure

Academic censure may assume any one of four forms, depending on the gravity of the situation calling for scholastic discipline.

a Warning. An official warning is given to a student who has received "Failure" grades in one-third of the semester hours which comprised his official roster for the term last completed.

b Probation. A student is placed on probation when: (1) he has attained a cumulative scholastic index of (a) less than 1.50 at the end of the first or second semester, (b) less than 1.75 at the end of the third or fourth semester, (c) less than 1.90 at the end of the fifth or sixth semester; or, (2) he has received "Failure" grades in more than one-third of the semester hours which comprised his official roster for the term last completed.

A student on probation forfeits the privilege of cuts, participation in extra-curricular activities, and eligibility to class or club office.

c Suspension. This is forced withdrawal from courses and residence, with the privilege of returning at the discretion of the Dean of his School.

d Dismissal. This is forced withdrawal from courses and residence without the privilege of seeking re-admission.

A student is liable to dismissal: (1) when he has attained a cumulative scholarship index of (a) less than 1.00 at the end of his first or second semester, (b) less than 1.50 at the end of the third or fourth semester, (c) less than 1.75 at the end of the fifth or sixth semester; (2) if he has received "Failure" grades in one-half of the credit hours of his official roster for a particular year; (3) if he has been on probation for two successive terms.

Academic Regulations

Attendance

A student is expected to attend every class in each course for which he is enrolled. A student is held responsible for all the work that he missed as a result of absence from class or laboratory.

Failure to be present in class or a laboratory ten minutes after the time when the instructor in charge opens a scheduled class or laboratory exercise constitutes an absence.

A "cut" is defined as a voluntary, unexcused absence. ("Cuts" are not to be regarded as a right but as a privilege reserved for conflicts with extra-curricular engagements, for sickness, and other unforeseen circumstances.) Students in ordinary good standing are accorded the privilege of a number of voluntary, unexcused absences per semester equal to twice the number of credit-hours assigned to the course. A student is held responsible for all work missed because of "cuts."

Students on the Deans' List are excused from the academic regulations governing attendance at class. However, they are expected to fulfill the requirements of every course rostered, whatever the nature of these requirements.

Students on probation are denied the "cut" privilege. A student who is absent to excess may be given a grade of "F."

Absence Permits over a Dean's signature which indicate the opinion that an absence is an "excused absence" are to be regarded as advisory by faculty members.

LA SALLE COLLEGE

Absences are computed from the first class meeting of the semester. Absences due to late arrival, to postponement of enrollment, to change of courses, or to unsatisfactory placement are charged against the student unless excused by the respective Dean.

Anticipated absences from class because of extra-curricular or academic engagements must be reported by the student to the respective Dean's office no later than one day before the actual day of absence. Where a group is involved, the proper authority in the group must arrange for the excuse.

Change of Courses

During the first two days of each semester, a student may make, with the written approval of his Dean, a change in his roster of courses. Courses dropped or discontinued without the written approval of the Dean after this period are recorded as "Failures" and are so evaluated for all purposes. The classes missed in the course to which the student transferred ordinarily are charged against the student.

Withdrawals

A student who withdraws from the College must submit a Withdrawal Notice to the Dean of his School. In the event that a student withdraws without submitting an official Withdrawal Notice, honorable dismissal is not granted and he forfeits the privilege of returning to the College. The date of filing the Withdrawal Notice is considered as the date of withdrawal in all cases.

Conduct of Examinations

Examinations are held in all courses at various times throughout each semester as scheduled by the instructor. Regularly scheduled final examinations are given at the end of each semester. The schedule for the final examinations is published in the Collegian and is posted on the Bulletin Boards.

In all examinations students are expected to conduct themselves with the highest degree, of integrity. Dishonesty or other improper conduct during the administration of any examination will subject the student to appropriate disciplinary measures.

R.O.T.C.

In addition to the regulations contained in this Handbook, R.O.T.C. students must comply with the Cadet Regulations published by the Department of Military Science.

Library Regulations

Each student will be given a library card entitling him to withdraw books for home or library use. He must present this card each time a book is withdrawn, and he shall be held responsible for all books drawn on the card. Books may be retained for a two-week period and may be renewed once.

Reference works (dictionaries, encyclopedias, and the like) are shelved in the main reading room. These are for use in the library only and may not be withdrawn for outside use.

Books placed on reserve by faculty members for the use of students may be withdrawn for use in the library. Some may be taken out for overnight use. Regulations concerning these are posted in the "List of Reserve Books" at the Reserve Book Desk on the second floor.

A fine of two cents per day (higher in the case of reserved books) is charged for books not returned on time. During the period when a student owes a fine or retains an overdue book, his library privileges are suspended.

All conversation and smoking is prohibited in the Library stack and reading areas. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the suspension of library privileges and/or a $10.00 fine.

Bulletin Board

For publication of notices, the Office of Academic Affairs has the boards outside the Deans' offices. Other bulletin boards on academic affairs are departmental. Students are held responsible for all notices appearing on these bulletin boards within twenty-four hours after posting.

Dress

All students are expected to dress as College gentlemen when on campus, particularly during those times when classes are in session. The wearing of coat, shirt and tie is required in the classroom. The only exception is the wearing of a sweater with an earned La Salle athletic letter attached. The wearing of Bermuda shorts is specifically prohibited on campus.

Student Services and Activities

STUDENT SERVICES

Dear Student,

The lives of heroic men are always challenging because they are inspired by the dynamic conviction that man with God is great and that he has been given something great to do despite his times and circumstances. Cowards are unwilling to accept opportunity, fearful to undertake to completion that great task at hand, too prone to blame others, too easily discouraged along the way. You must have an overwhelming faith in the importance of the work you have to do. St. La Salle had such a faith in the Christian education of youth, and from him La Salle College has inherited her faith in the importance of your education.

Christian education aims at the perfection of the whole man—his spiritual, intellectual, physical, and social perfection. Life and living are more complex than just one Sunday Mass, one biology lesson, or one successful basketball season. Education is more than training for making a living; it is training for living. La Salle College wants to give you such an education. Cooperate with her. Take advantage of what she has to offer.

The unselfish, well-trained, professional men who make up the teaching faculty at La Salle work together for your development toward perfection. So too, dedicated men are at your service in the persons of your counselors and advisers in the Deans' Offices, the Counseling Center, the Chaplain's Office, the Medical Center, the Office of Housing, the Athletic Office, the Office of Student Organizations, and many others. Go to them. Cooperate with them for your greater good—for your preparation to face successfully the crises of this troubled world.

Sincerely,

Brother Gavin Paul, F.S.C.

Counseling Center

After the student has been admitted to the College, preregistration counseling is made available to him by the College Counseling Center. This counseling is designed to stimulate and assist self-evaluation on the part of each student to help him make educational and vocational plans which are commensurate with his abilities, interests and personality.

When further counseling or other special assistance is deemed necessary, the student is apprised of this need, and, if he chooses, may make use of the College counseling service in resolving his difficulty. Contacts are maintained with various agencies outside of the College and students are referred to these when necessary.

The counseling service is available to the student on a voluntary basis throughout his College career.

Reading Development

An intensive program of reading development and study habits improvement is offered several times a year. Through this program students are assisted in the development of reading comprehension and speed as one of the basic skills in effective study. Vocabulary development is emphasized; and while the course is not primarily a mechanical one, the latest speed reading equipment is made available to the student. Most participants in this activity are able to make a substantial improvement in reading.

MRS. ANDREW SERCHAK, R.N.

The College Health Program

The College maintains a Health Service for the purpose of promoting the general health of the students and enlisting their cooperation in safe-guarding themselves from preventable illness and accidents, which might otherwise lead to absence from classes and interruption of their program of study.

The principal component of the Health Service is the medical Infirmary and Dispensary, under the direction of the College physician, and a Registered Nurse, located in St. Cassian Hall. The regular hours for treatment and consultation are from 9:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.

For resident students, the Infirmary provides temporary hospitalization for minor illness; for serious or prolonged illness, removal to a local hospital is arranged by the College Physician.

All resident students are required to have a physical examination by the College Physician, upon entrance.

The clinical facilities of the Germantown Hospital (two city blocks distance) are at the disposal of any student, in case of emergency.

To provide necessary medical protection at a reasonable cost, a number of insurance plans were examined, and after a thorough study the plan adopted provides coverage for the twelve-month period for $30.00, and covers both illness and accident. Participation in this program is optional. All foreign students or those whose home is outside the United States are required to have this protection. Arrangements can be made through the office of the Vice-President for Student Affairs, or the Infirmary.

REVEREND MARK HEATH,
O.P., Chaplain

Religious Activities

The religious activities of La Salle College seek to unite the academic, cultural, social, and athletic parts of campus life into the God-centered whole which is the ideal and peculiar mark of a Catholic college. This ideal is pursued by providing opportunities for personal and private worship and by encouraging corporate worship and religious activity.

A College Chapel is available both for private visits to the Blessed Sacrament and for college devotions.

The College provides a resident chaplain who is present for confessions and counsel at all times.

Daily Mass is said for the students at 7:25, 7:55 and 12:25. Confessions are heard daily during Mass and also from 12:00 to 12:25.

Weekly Sunday Mass and confessions are provided for resident students.

Devotions to Our Lady* of the Miraculous Medal are held weekly during the evening hours for resident students and students in the Evening Division.

First Friday devotions consisting of Masses, and Benediction honor the Sacred Heart each month.

During May and October, special services in honor of the Blessed Virgin are held in the evening in the Chapel and at the Lourdes Grotto on the campus.

All Catholic students are required to make one retreat each year. They may fulfill this requirement by a week-end retreat at St. Joseph's-in-the-Hills Retreat House in Malvern, Pa., or at St. Pius X Retreat House in Blackwood, near Camden, New Jersey, or by making the three-day retreat held on campus each year during the first three days of Holy Week. Arrangements for week-end retreats may be made through the Office of the Chaplain.

During the year certain feasts are celebrated by special Masses or devotions. A Solemn Mass of the Holy Ghost begins each Academic Year. A special Mass is celebrated on the feast of Saint Barbara, December 4th, the Patron Saint of Artillerymen, which all members of the R.O.T.C. unit of the College attend in uniform. A Solemn Mass in honor of Saint John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of the College, is sung each year as part of the Founder's Day exercises.

LA SALLE COLLEGE

An announced Requiem Mass is said in the College Chapel after the death of any member of the immediate family of a student or a faculty member.

DR. JAMES J. HENRY, Director of Athletics

Student groups making use of the bulletin boards for announcements of their activities shall type or print neatly such notices on a piece of paper that measures approximately eight inches by eleven. For shorter notices, a piece one-half this size may be used. Notices which are carelessly prepared are subject to removal without explanation. After a notice has expired, those responsible for its posting are expected to see to its removal.

Posters or notices advertising events held outside of the College's jurisdiction must have the permission of the Vice-President for Student Affairs, before they can be exhibited on the official bulletin board.

Posting notices of college events on the campus grounds must have the permission of the Vice-President for Student Affairs.

Students are prohibited from affixing notices to any part of the woodwork or walls in corridors and classrooms.

Failure to comply with these regulations will subject students to disciplinary action.

Outside Work

A student who plans to support himself in whole or in part during a semester should obtain the approval of the Vice-President for Student Affairs and should report the details of the proposed employment to the office of the Vice-President for Student Affairs. This may be done at the semester registration period. The sole reason for this is helpful guidance of the student's program of study.

Alcoholic Beverages

Any student, registered in the Day Division, who is under 21 years of age, is forbidden under sanction to purchase and/or consume alcohol in an outside agency from whom space has been engaged for the purpose of holding a social affair, under the sponsorship of a recognized club or organization of the College.

Student Discipline

Non-scholastic disciplinary action may take one of the following forms:

LA SALLE COLLEGE

a Probation—wherein a student has shown himself guilty of misconduct sufficiently grievous to warrant notice by the College authorities and where his status as a College student is such that privileges (including academic) ordinarily granted a student are temporarily denied him. A student on probation is subject to close supervision by the faculty. The time limit for the period of probation is set by the Vice-President for Student Affairs.

b Suspension. Such action is taken when the misconduct drawing censure assumes grave proportions. Suspension means exclusion from classes until the end of the semester during which the student draws such action upon himself. Suspension does not deny the student the privilege of re-entering.

c Dismissal. A serious breach of the canon of conduct expected of college young men may result in dismissal. Such action means exclusion from classes without the privilege of re-entering them. Usually such action means dishonorable withdrawal and an entry is accordingly made on the student's permanent record.

Property Damage

In the event of damage to any building, furniture, apparatus, or other property of the College, students responsible for such shall be held liable and subject to disciplinary action.

Smoking Regulations

Smoking is prohibited at any time in all classrooms and laboratories; inside the College auditorium and Union Theatre and on the stages; inside the Faculty residence; in any part of Benilde Hall or Leonard Hall. Student Council President

Student Government at La Salle

The ultimate power of student government at La Salle College rests with the Student Council which in turn has delegated certain powers and responsibilities to the Student Organizations Commission and the Residence Hall Council, both of which are standing committees of the Student Council.

The Student Council is the official representative of the student body in its relations with the administrators and faculty of the college, the student representatives of other educational institutions and associations, the community, and the public in general. It is composed of twenty-five voting representatives: the President of Student Council, elected by the student body at large; the four duly elected officers of each class; and four officers each from the Residence Hall Council and the Student Organizations Commission. The manner of election for these representatives may be found in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Student Council.

Traditionally, Student Council sponsors such social affairs as the Harvest Dance, the Freshmen Welcome Dance, and the Blue and Gold Ball; manages the Student Loan Services, sponsors the Freshmen Orientation Program, holds student-faculty assemblies, represents the college in inter-collegiate conferences, and serves as a channel of communication between the student body and the faculty and college administrators.

The Residence Hall Council, a student organization consisting of committees whose interests are classed as religious, social, athletic, is primarily concerned with the out-of-town students. The Residence Hall Council governs and assists those students by providing activities specially geared to develop them and at the same time provide the means for rest and relaxation. Members of this organization are elected by the resident students of the college.

The Student Organizations Commission is responsible to the Student Council for coordinating the activities of clubs, fraternities, and other student organizations, and for governing the actions of these organizations. The Student Organizations Commission is immediately responsible for administering the student organizations under its jurisdiction in order that the best interests of the student body and the college may be served. The Commission is the first agent in the administrative channels provided for the approval of student groups seeking official college recognition, and all such groups are required to initiate their petitions with the Commission, at the same time submitting a copy of the organization's proposed constitution for review and approval.

The Student Organizations Commission is composed of the Presidents of all student organizations, the editors of the Collegian (college newspaper) and the Explorer (college yearbook), and the Junior Delegate of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. The officers of the Commission are elected from and by the members.

A special committee under the jurisdiction of the Student Council is the Committee of Explorers (C.O.E.), a group of students specifically concerned with instilling esprit de corps within the student body and functions as a service group. The C.O.E. is responsible for the pep rallies at the college and leads the cheering sections at athletic events. By personal contact, posters, flyers, and other publicity media, it promotes many campus functions and encourages the active support of all the students at college events.

The Student Loan, managed by the Student Council, is a service provided for the student through which he can borrow small amounts of money without interest, usually for a period of two weeks. After such periods when the loan becomes due, a fine is charged until the final payment of the loan.

The Student Government of La Salle College is interested in serving you, the student, and it requests your full support and cooperation in all of its endeavors. Your support and cooperation will be evidenced by your observance of the rules and regulations of student government, by your attendance at the various events and meetings sponsored by your student government, and by your active participation in the Student Council or any of its subordinate organizations and agencies.
